EES BOOK FAIR...The Elba Elementary School Library is conducting its annual book fair this week. The event actually began Friday, March L, in conjunction with Read Across America which celebrates the birthday of Dr. Seuss. On Monday evening, Mar. 4, Parent's Night was held along with the PTO meeting. A percentage of the money raised during the book fair will be used to purchase additional books and AR disks for the school library, and in an effort to help ensure the success of the book fair, many parents volunteer their time to work during the event. As shown above, the students enjoy looking around at the wide selection of reading material before making a decision of which book(s) to buy. Those captured looking at the books include (from left): Donta Tillis, Dekembe Bullard and Brittney Johnson

> WHAT DOES THE BIBLE SAY ABOUT....? A Service of the Elba Church of Christ

Does Mark 16:9-20 belong in the Bible?

For any passage of Scripture to belong in the Bible it must be inspired of God (2 Timothy 3:16-17). Therefore for Mark 16:9- to be held for 20 to belong in the Bible it must have come from the mind of God. If it is from God it must be the truth (John 17:17), and cannot contradict the truth of any other passage of Scripture. Does Mark 16:9-20 teach error? No! Everything stated in this text is either recorded in the other 3 gospel accounts and/or supported by other passages of Scripture. Did Jesus after His resurrection appear unto Mary Magdalene, and did she tell the disci- Elba, on Sunday, March 10, 1996. ples about His appearing to her? Yes (Mark 16:9-11; Luke 24: 10- beginning at 6:30 p.m. 1). Did Jesus appear to two of His disciples in another form? Yes (Mark 16:12-13; Luke 24:13-15). Did Jesus appear to the rest of the disciples? Yes (Mark 16:14; 1 Corinthians 15:5). Did Jesus tell His disciples to preach the gospel to every creature? Yes (Mark 16:15; Matthew 28:19). Did Jesus tell His disciples: "He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned"? Yes (Mark 16:16; Matthew | have Barbecue 28:19). Did Jesus say that the word would be confirmed by miracles? Yes (Mark 16:17-20; Hebrews 2: 1-4). So why would there be any question about Mark 16:9-20 belonging in the Bible? Because there is no way to get around Mark 16:16! So in an having a Barbecue this attempt to cast suspicion upon the Lord's statement, which makes | Saturday March 9, 2002 clear that baptism is essential for salvation, it is often raised to view that it is not found in "the two most reliable early manuscripts and other ancient witnesses do not have Mark 16: 9-20 (NIV 1978)" But the NKJV states correctly " ...nearly all other manuscripts of Mark contain them. The two so-called most reliable manuscripts are the Codex Sinaiticus and Codex Vaticanus.

Board for the Elba High School Career/Technical Program hosted several business, school and political officials in an effort to keep everyone informed of the happenings at Elba High School. The purpose of the advisory board is to allow the school system and business world to work together and help one another as technology advances. During the evening, those in attendance were updated on the school's situation and need for the support of the community as education continues to struggle during the time ESJC offering Latin dance class of proration. Also, officials from MacArthur State Technical College were in attendance and updated the group on the relationship between the college and Elba. An impressive point included the fact that Ballroom Dance or know how Dance is the next step for you! ### THE PRESSBOX

By Ricky Mularz, Sports Editor

Now that softball season has started for both the girls it seems like we are always looking for something to cook that is easy to make. tastes good and can be ready in a matter of minutes. The newest ranks when he signed a football craze in the Mularz house is chicken tenders, which can be kept in the freezer until they are placed in the Fry Daddy, and are ready in only minutes. I know that fried foods aren't always the healthiest Tennessee foods to be found, but they are just as good as sandwiches and even the girls don't mind doing the cooking. Oh yea, if you want to give colleges missed out by not signthem a try, the best are from Elba's own Kelley Foods, of course!

DIGGING THROUGH MY NOTES ....

*** Elba's Gavin Mauldin signed a football scholarship last week with Tusculum College, of Tennessee, and after talking with Elba will be a dominating force in Tiger head coach Mike Waters I am convinced that the Division 2 college football. He improved college will be a great place for the Tiger standout to continue his career. A lot of bigger colleges showed some interest in the 6-6, 300. high school and was probably pound lineman, but they wanted him to walk on and earn a spot on the roster before offering him any kind of scholarship. Their loss around by the end of his senior was Tusculum's gain, and there is no doubt the Elba senior will season. The coaches move on to the college-ranks and be a force to be reckoned with throughout his career. It is a shame that Gavin won't play close enough to Elba to allow his many friends and fans the chance to watch him play on a weekly basis. However, he is at a school that to sign. I think it will be a good wanted him, and that will make a difference as he continues his college career, on and off the field. Good luck!

*** The cold weather has taken its toll on the preseason workouts for both the Elba Tigers and Elba Lady Tigers, but both teams are scheduled to swing into action this week and expectations are high in both baseball and softball.
